

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

TEXAS TECH

MEMORANDUM

DATE: January 15, 2025

TO: Faculty & Staff

FROM: Lawrence Schovanec, President

RE: President's Select Applications Closing Soon

President's Select ambassadors play a vital role in representing Texas Tech University, often serving as the first point of contact for visitors and prospective students. These ambassadors exemplify the core values that define our institution and its commitment to excellence. This opportunity is open to on-campus undergraduate students in Lubbock.

The application deadline for interested students is in three days, Friday, Jan. 17, which is quickly approaching. Please remind students to submit their applications on time.

I ask you to encourage outstanding students to apply for membership. Through their participation in this important organization, students gain valuable communication, decision-making, and leadership skills, which will benefit them in their futures.

We appreciate you taking the time to share this opportunity with students you feel exemplify the inherent values and qualities of Texas Tech.
