

TEXAS TECH™

Dear Red Raiders,

I am pleased to share with you the 2024 President's Report, which highlights the many achievements and milestones that have made the past year truly remarkable for Texas Tech University.

I invite you to take a moment to review the report and join us in celebrating the progress we've made together. Your continued support and dedication have played an important role in driving these achievements as we work to lay the foundation for even greater success in the future.

Thank you for everything you do to make Texas Tech the exceptional institution it is today.

Sincerely,

Lawrence Schovanec
President, Texas Tech University
